HOADLEY AGAIN HALED TO COURT

Must Tell To-Day Why He Should Not Be Punished for Contempt.

FAILED TO ANSWER IN JUDGMENT CASE

Promoter of International Power Company Accused of Concealing Assets.

Joseph H. Hoadley, who was proter and president of the International Power Company, in whose stock he and Joseph C. Leiter, of Chicago, had a pool that collapsed in 1902, is again Supreme Court to-day and tell why he $16,800 IS FOUND that were asked regarding his financial ability to pay the judgment, which is for $16,300 and is due to Richardson, Hill & Co.

Mr. Hoadley has been in supplementary examinations before, but not until the present proceedings has he been compelled to reveal the names of the persons for whom he made extensive purchases of the International Power stock before the collapse of the Counsel for the judgment creditor asked Hoadley whether he was a holder of the stock in 1902, and he replied that he controlled a great many shares in his own name and others. He added that he "manipulated for the good of

The house at 18 East Eighty-second Street was sold a little more than a month ago, for the ninth time in four years, to satisfy a judgment of $100,000. It was bid in for $73,339 by a person who, it was said, acted in Hoadley's interest.

"CROCKERY" SHIPMENTS FOUND TO BE DRUGS

Two Men Held for Alleged Traffic Via Mexico.

Crockery is scarce in Mexico. Ac cordingly, when Antonio Fallara, a mmission merchant at 366 Broome Street, began receiving no end of packages from Piedras Negras designated as chinaware, the police became sus-

Yesterday they arrested Fallara, at the same time taking into custody Daniel H. Mason, a merchant of Piedras Negras, visiting in New York.
Detectives say they learned Fallara was forwarding sbout 1,000 ounces of cocaine and heroin each month to Mason, who shipped it back to New York labelled "crockery."
Mason was held by United States Commissioner Houghton in $5,000 bail on a charge of violating the Harrison act, and Fallara in $2,500 for the same alleged offence.
